

“Liberalisms and Anti-Liberalisms – Challenges and Alternatives”, International Series of Events

Thursday, October 8

Forum Publishing House, Novi Sad

19:00 Round Table: “Magyarország negyed évszázada – a rendszerváltástól máig” (Hungary in the Last Quarter-Century – From the End of “Socialism” until Today), in Hungarian

Chair: Mark Losoncz (IFDT, Belgrade)

Participants: Ádám Takács (ELTE Atelier, Budapest), Zoltán Miklósi (CEU, Budapest), György Vári (Népszabadság)

Friday, October 9

Institute for Philosophy and Social Theory, Belgrade

“Liberalisms and Anti-Liberalisms – Challenges and Alternatives”, International Conference

10:00 Welcome Address

10:20 SESSION 1

Nenad Dimitrijević (CEU, Budapest): Liberal Autonomy in a Troubled Context: towards Second-Personal Thinking

Andres Moles (CEU, Budapest): Liberalism, Paternalism and the Distribution of Autonomy

Adriana Zaharijević (IFDT, Belgrade): Individual as a Non-Neutral, Non-Universal State of the Affairs

Marjan Ivković (IFDT, Belgrade): Liberalism and the Strongly Intersubjectivist Conception of Autonomy

12:30 Lunch

14:30 SESSION 2

Zoltán Miklósi (CEU, Budapest): Liberalism and Immigration

Aleksandar Matković (IFDT, Belgrade): The Twin Berlins of Europe: on the Parallel Tendencies of Liberalism and Fascism

Katarina Lončarević (Faculty of Political Sciences, Belgrade): “Feminists Can’t or Shouldn’t Be Liberals”? The Curious Case of Liberal Feminism

Mark Losoncz (IFDT, Belgrade): The Aporias of Secret in a Liberal Democracy

19:00 Round Table: What's Left of Liberalism in Eastern Europe?

Cultural Centre of Belgrade

Chair: Marjan Ivković (IFDT, Belgrade)

Participants: Zoltán Pogátsa (University of Western Hungary), Nenad Dimitrijević (CEU, Budapest), Andres Moles (CEU, Budapest), Biljana Đorđević (Faculty of Political Sciences, Belgrade), Đorđe Trikoš (LIBEK, Belgrade)

Saturday, October 10

11:00 SESSION 3

Zoltán Pogátsa (University of Western Hungary): How Economic Liberalism has Destroyed Post-Soviet Democracies

Alpar Losoncz (University of Novi Sad): Is Neo-Liberalism the Tragical, but Non-Intentional Consequence of Liberalism?

Ádám Takács (ELTE Atelier, Budapest): Lukács's Criticism of Liberal Democracy

Jovo Bakić (Department of Sociology, Belgrade): Liberal and/or Radical Democracy

13:00 Lunch